

Mark R. Pawlina
Chief of Police

Chatham Police Department Media Release

BOMB THREAT AT MONOMOY REGIONAL MIDDLE SCHOOL

Date of Issue: February 13, 2015

Issued by: Lieutenant Michael D. Anderson

At 12:30 p.m. today, Monomoy Regional Middle School, 425 Crowell Road, Chatham, received a telephoned threat. The threat was reporting a bomb in the building. There were no other specifics mentioned in the threat.

School officials initiated parental notification and a building evacuation. All Monomoy Regional Middle School students were transported to the Monomoy High School, 75 Oak Street, Harwich for release to parents.

Chatham Police assisted Monomoy Middle School Staff in the dismissal of students and building search. Additional assistance was provided by the Harwich Police Department.

Nothing suspicious has been found at this time.

Monomoy Middle School is currently closed. There will be no evening activities at the school. Monomoy Middle School will reopen for students and parents who wish to retrieve any belongings, on Saturday, February 14 from 08:00a.m. - 11:00a.m.

The Chatham Police Department and the Monomoy Regional School District are currently investigating the source of this threat. Any persons with information regarding this incident can call Chatham Police Detectives: 508-945-1217.